VICE PRESIDENCY.

Ex-Senator H. G. Davis, of West Virginia, Nominated by the Democratic Convention.

652 VOTES ON THE FIRST BALLOT

Before Another Vote Was Ordered He Was Named by Acclamation Under Suspension of Rules.

Judge Parker Declined Nomination For the Presidency Unless the Convention Declares For Gold Standard, Which Was Done.

St. Louis, July 11.—The following telegram was received from Judge A. B. Parker by the democratic national convention Saturday afternoon just as the democratic national convention was about to finish its work and nominated a candidate for vice president.

"I regard the gold standard as firmly and irrevocably established, and shall act accordingly if the action of the convention of to-day shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject, my views should be made known to the convention, and if it is proved to be unsatisfactory to the majority, I request you to decline the nomination for me at once, so that another man may be nominated before adjournment. A. B. PARKER."

The convention then adjourned until 7 o'clock Saturday evening. On reassembling the convention partially granted Mr. Parker's request by sending him the following telegram:

"The platform adopted by this convention is silent on the question of monetary standard because it is not regarded by us as a possible issue in this campaign, and only campaign issues were mentioned in the platform. Therefore, there is nothing in the views expressed by you in the telegram just received which would preclude a man entertaining them from accepting a nomination on said platform."

Nominations for vice president were then received and a vote was taken.

Alabama, Arkansas and California went solidly for Davis. Turner scored seven on the Colorado vote and Williams received three at the same time. The final result of the ballot was officially:

Williams	165
Turner	100
Davis	654
Harris	58

Iowa did not vote.

The nomination of Davis was made unanimous.

Delegate John Lamb, of Indiana, moved that the democratic national committee be authorized to fill any vacancy that might occur on the national ticket.

The motion was made in the form of a resolution, which was adopted without opposition.

A resolution naming and thanking the officers of the convention was also adopted; also, James K. Jones and the outgoing national committee.

The people of St. Louis and the Business Men's League of the city were thanked for entertainment provided.

Chairman Champ Clark and Temporary Chairman John Sharp Williams were made respectively chairman of the committees to notify Judge Parker and ex-Senator Davis of their nomination.

Senator McCreary, of Kentucky, presided in the closing moments of the convention.

A resolution of thanks to Senator Joseph Bailey, of Texas, for the admirable manner in which he presided, was adopted.

At 1:31 o'clock Sunday morning Senator McCreary adjourned the convention sine die, the band playing "Auld Lang Syne."

The national committee met Sunday to elect a chairman. After nearly two hours of debate Senator Bailey offered to compromise if the committee would adopt resolution endorsing the candidacy of Thomas Taggart for chairman of the committee. Mr. Mack agreed to this and the resolution was adopted. The committee will therefore meet in New York on the call of former Chairman Jones.

Harmon Congratulates Davis.

Cincinnati, July 11.—Judge Judson Harmon Sunday sent the following dispatch to former Senator Henry G. Davis, at Elkins, W. Covington, Ky., July 11.—N. B. Hayes, attorney general of Kentucky, announces that the poolrooms in Covington will be closed. He has filed three motions in the circuit court for temporary injunctions against the proprietors of the poolrooms and owners of the real estate. On Thursday next the local attorney, assisting General Hayes, will move to have the injunctions issued and for an early hearing at which Judge Shaw will be asked to make the orders permanent and perpetual. It is stated that the poolrooms will move across the Licking river back of Newport, Ky.

HARRY CROXON DYING.

He Is In the Pen For Assaulting Mrs. Bertha Gleason.

Covington, Ky., July 11.—Prosecutor Phillips and B. M. Frazier, both of Covington, returned from Frankfort, Ky., Sunday. Harry Croxon, one of a number who assaulted Bertha Gleason, in the Highlands, for which he was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary, is dying of tuberculosis. Tom Mulligan, who, with Wallace Bishop, took the life of Patrolman "Mox" McQuery, at the approach of the Suspension bridge, in Covington, and who is also suffering with the same trouble, is growing better.

Johnson Hatfield Pardoned.

Frankfort, Ky., July 11.—Johnson Hatfield, one of the most noted feud prisoners in the Kentucky penitentiary, has been pardoned by Lieutenant and Acting Gov. Thorne, and he is now at liberty. Hatfield has been confined for four years on a life sentence given him for participating in the Hatfield McCoy feud fight of 20 years ago. The pardon covers the case under which he was convicted, and also all other indictments against him growing out of that feud.

Miner's Life Crushed Out.

Mayking, Ky., July 11.—While Thom as Hughes was at work in a coal mine at Carr's Fort, north of Mayking, a great rock fell and crushed him to death. It was several hours before his fellow workmen were able to remove the stone, which is estimated to weigh two tons.

The Barbers Were Careful.

Newport, Ky., July 11.—It was next to impossible to induce a tonsorial artist to work on one's face in Newport Sunday. The recent activity of the local union in causing warrants to be issued for barbers who violated the law on the Sunday previous was the reason.

Drowned in the River.

Bellefonte, Ky., July 11.—"Lured to death by the enticing waters of the Ohio river" would be a fitting coronial verdict in the case of George Sauer, of Bellevue, whose death by drowning occurred Sunday afternoon. The river had a strange fascination for him.

A TORPEDO ATTACK

The Japanese Attempted to Penetrate Into the Harbor at Port Arthur Sunday.

WERE REPULSED WITHOUT LOSS.

Severe Fighting Took Place Around the Port July 7, Russians Admit Loss of 1,000 Killed.

Gen. Sakharoff Confirms the Report of the Japs Occupation of Kai Chou —Russian Loss Was 150 Killed or Wounded.

Che Foo, July 11.—A European who left Port Arthur at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon reports that the Japanese made a torpedo attack Sunday morning, attempting to penetrate into the harbor. They were repulsed without loss to either side.

The European reports further that on July 7 severe fighting occurred around Port Arthur. The Russians claimed to have driven the Japanese back on all sides, but admitted a loss of over 1,000 killed. Seven hundred wounded are said to have arrived at Port Arthur July 8 and it was reported that more were to come in.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff, in a dispatch to the general staff, confirms the report of the Japanese occupation of Kai Chou. He says that the Russians did not exceed 150 killed or wounded. The general adds that the Japanese are on the Yin Kow road.

Che Foo, July 11.—Chinese junkmen who arrived here Sunday from Port Arthur say that on Tuesday, July 5, Chinese carriers brought into the town over 800 Russian dead, two of whom were high officials. They state that a part of the Japanese force advanced to within six miles of the besieged town, taking another eastern fort.

Tokio, July 11.—Gen. Kuroki reports that on Wednesday, July 6, a detachment of Japanese troops drove off 300 Russian cavalry and occupied Kanchang, the enemy retiring northward. The Japanese had no casualties. The Russian losses are unknown. On the afternoon of July 5, 1,300 Russian cavalry attacked a Japanese detachment near the north entrance to Fenshui Pass. The Russians were repulsed and the Japanese regained possession of the entrance to the pass. The Japanese had four men killed and three wounded.

ADM. CERVERA.

Americans Present Him With An Engrossed Message.

Medina-Sidonia, Spain, July 11.—As a demonstration of gratitude regarding his conduct at Santiago and his care of American sailors, Admiral Cervera was presented here with an engrossed message bearing the signatures of a number of well known Americans, besides letters from the subscribers, bound in a volume. The presentation was made by Mr. Bird, of Vienna, in behalf of his fellow Americans. The admiral, in returning thanks for this manifestation of American good will said that his conduct toward Lieut. Hobson and the American sailors after the sinking of the Merrimac had been inspired by superior orders. Admiral Cervera had repeatedly refused to permit his American admirers to so honor him, but, notwithstanding their refusals, the plan to make the presentation was carried out.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON.

W. J. BRYAN ILL.

His Physicians Say There Is Nothing Alarming in His Condition.

St. Louis, July 11.—Mr. Bryan left the Jefferson hotel early Sunday and went to the residence of his cousin, Dr. Jennings, in this city. His physician says his condition was much improved over Saturday and he expects to leave for his home in Lincoln Monday night.

When Mr. Bryan left his bed Saturday night to go to the convention hall his temperature was above 100, and he complained of much soreness of the lungs. He was examined after the close of the convention by Dr. Osborne, who decided there was nothing alarming in Mr. Bryan's condition and that a quiet and rest would quickly restore him to his usual good health.

His appearance at the convention hall was in opposition to the commands of his physician and contrary to the wishes of his friends. He left his bed at time when his attendants were absent from the room, and in doing so created no little alarm for his safety.

A COLORED PREACHER.

No Shave For Him in a White Barber Shop.

Oyster Bay, July 11.—There was intense feeling among the Negroes of the village Sunday night because a Negro clergyman was put out of a white man's barber shop here Saturday night when he insisted upon being shaved by a white barber.

It is believed by many to have been a carefully planned proceeding upon the part of the Negroes to give expression to the declaration of a more liberal policy toward the Negroes in the republican national platform. At any rate, the Negroes say they will make an effort to have the matter laid before the president at once, and they are confident he will uphold them.

MUNICIPAL ENTERPRISE.

Webster City, Ia., Is To Own a Daily Newspaper.

Webster City, Ia., July 11.—Webster City's penchant for municipal ownership is to take a new form—that of a city-owned daily paper. This departure in municipal enterprise probably has not a counterpart in the United States. The paper is to be known as the Daily Graphic-Herald, and will be issued from the present office of the Weekly Graphic-Herald, the only democratic paper in Hamilton county. Webster City began its career as municipal ownership city many years ago. It first acquired possession of the water works. Next came the electric light and power plant. Then came the city heating plant.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON.

He Corrects a Statement Made By Capt. R. P. Hobson.

Boston, July 11.—Booker T. Washington, while here Sunday, expressed surprise because he had been quoted by Capt. Richmond P. Hobson at the national democratic convention as having suggested, in a recent address before the National Education association in St. Louis, that white people and colored should attend the schools and churches in the south. Washington said that Capt. Hobson must have made a mistake in reading his speech, or had been misinformed, as he had never made any suggestion, and that the subject was not touched upon in the address mentioned.

CONDEMNED MURDERER.

He Confessed to Committing Four Other Murders.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 11.—John Johnson (colored), who with Frank Ousley, also colored, will hang next Thursday for the murder of Grocer James Donnelly, has confessed to four other murders. Johnson says he was born in Georgia and when about 18 years old started out as a tramp. Two of his victims were with him, traveling in a box car on a Virginia railroad, and after murdering them for the $5 in their possession he threw their bodies from the car while the train was going. His other two victims suffered a like fate on a Georgia railroad.

Newspaper Men Honored.

St. Louis, July 11.—About 100 newspaper men from various parts of the country who have been in attendance on the national democratic convention visited the Philippine section of the fair Sunday as the guests of the management.

CARS TELESCOPED.

Seventeen Excursionists Killed and About 100 Injured at Midvale, N. J.

THE TOWER OPERATOR BLAMED.

It is Claimed That He Failed to Set the Block Signal Against a Passenger Train Following.

Engine of Second Train Tore Through Rear Car of the First Train and Drove the Front End Into the Car Ahead.

New York, July 11.—Seventeen persons were killed and about a hundred injured in a collision which occurred at Midvale, N. J., just before noon Sunday when a regular passenger train on the Greenwood branch of the Erie railroad ran into an excursion train that had stopped to take water. All the dead and injured lived in Hoboken, Jersey City and New York.

The accident is believed to have resulted from a tower operator having lowered his signal too soon, and this was admitted by D. W. Cooke, general passenger agent of the Erie railroad, who gave out a statement in which he said: "The operator in the tower failed to set the block signal against the train following."

The train which was run into was a special carrying members of the First Plattdeutscher association of Hoboken on their annual outing and had 800 passengers. It consisted of 12 cars and two engines. The first engine had taken water and the train had moved up and stopped with the second engine beside the tank when the regular train drew near. The flagman of the special signalled the engineer of the incoming train but owing to a curve in the road his flag was not seen until it was too late. It is claimed that the engineer of the regular train had slowed down to about ten miles an hour before he crashed into the special but his engine tore through the rear car the greater part of its length and drove the forward end of that car into the car ahead. The killed and injured were in those two cars.

The wreckage did not catch fire and the work of taking out the dead and maimed was accomplished quickly. The passengers from the uninjured coaches ran back and joined in the work and the residents of Midvale, many of whom had heard the crash, assisted them. The 14 dead were soon laid beside the track and the injured were carried to the nearby houses.

While physicians were being sent for women of Midvale brought bandages and other articles that could be used in caring for the injured. An engine and cars were sent from Little Falls to the scene of the wreck and as rapidly as possible the most seriously hurt were prepared for transportation by train to Little Falls and thence to Jersey City or Hoboken. The less severely hurt were continued under treatment in Midvale until later in the day. All those hurt were eventually taken either to their homes or to hospitals.

The engineer and fireman of the regular train disappeared from the scene just after the accident. They both escaped injury by jumping just before the crash.

The operator in the tower was Walter Richards. He would make no statement and was relieved and left the scene soon after the accident.

CARS WENT OVER EMBANKMENT.

Thirty-Eight Passengers Were Injured, But None Killed.

St. Louis, July 11.—While running at full speed the tender of the engine drawing an eastbound excursion train on the Missouri Pacific road jumped a switch near Lebadie, 45 miles west of here Sunday, derailing four coaches which were thrown down the embankment and injuring 38 passengers. It is considered remarkable that none were killed and only three were seriously injured.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.
ALTON BROOKS PARKER
of New York.

For Vice President.
HENRY G. DAVIS of West Virginia.

For Congress.
JAMES N. KEHOE
of Mason County.

THE Government gave the people of Maysville abundant time and opportunity to enter any protests and objections they might have to the selection of the Hunter lot as the location for the public building, but so far as the BULLETIN knows not a protest was filed. The lot has been purchased and paid for, the deed duly executed, plans for the building prepared and bids advertised for its erection, and it seems a little late now to raise a howl over the location.

As a piece of supernal gall and flagrant abuse of the printing privilege in the Congressional Record, the action of the Republicans using the Record as a campaign document certainly "takes the cake."

Representative McCleary of Minnesota remained in Washington after the adjournment of Congress and prepared a campaign document and had it printed in the Record so that the Republican campaign managers can send it out under their franks and have it scattered broadcast at public expense. April 22 last, Mr. McCleary got one minute of time in which to deliver a speech. He spoke his little minute and sat down and did not as is the custom get either leave to print or permission to extend his remarks in the Record. Imagine the surprise of every body when the Record came out on June 20, seven weeks after the adjournment of Congress, the latest in the history of that publication that it has been held open, containing a speech by Mr. McCleary of about 100,000 words and forty pages in length.

This is a fair sample of Republican gall and unlimited nerve out of which has grown the gigantic graft that is daily going on in all the departments. It's on a par with obtaining money under false pretenses. The Republicans have come to look upon the public service as their very own property to be used as they may see fit and it is up to the people of the country to give them a jar in this campaign such as they never will forget. It's no wonder the departments are honeycombed with fraud when the leaders resort to such open-handed methods.

PEN PORTRAIT OF TEDDY'S RUNNING MATE.

A gentleman who resides at Washington City and who keeps in touch with the doings of Congress and the members of that august body gives this pen picture of Senator Fairbanks, President Roosevelt's running mate in the present campaign:

And what of his running mate, the elongated sycamore of the Wabash, Mr. Fairbanks? It is again in the nature of the eternal fitness of things that a refrigerator convention should turn out cold things. Fairbanks is the apotheosis of frigidity and frozen dignity; you can walk into his presence and then spit on the floor and skate out; he possesses more dignity than a nigger preacher or a blind jackass in a snow storm; he is the summum summarum and the ultima thule of cool conservatism; he is so conservative that if he were a soldier he could enter a campaign with a thousand men in his regiment and come out of it with not less than fifteen hundred. He was never known to give a direct and unequivocal answer to any question. If he and a friend were to see a drove of freshly sheared sheep and his friend were to say: "Why, Fairbanks, these sheep have just been sheared, haven't they?" He would answer: "They look like it from this side." He reminds one of the story of the father who told his son who was going to a party to keep his mouth shut or every one would find out that he was a fool.

Fairbanks seldom opens his mouth except to eat. He also reminds one of the old minstrel song of our callow days: "Mother may I go out to swim? Oh, yes, my darling daughter; hang your clothes on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

Fairbanks not only is cold and haughty, but he is stingy. If he has ever, since his advent into the Senate of the United States, said one thing worthy of remembrance or attached his name to a single piece of legislation no man knows it. He is a fit running mate for Teddy the Terrible. While the former does stunts in midair, he will sit steady and do the marionette and automaton act for the trusts and combines of the country. Truly they are a great pair.

WAR ON MOSQUITOES.

Maine Hospital Service Issues Some Valuable Instructions.

[Washington Star.]

The marine hospital service has already begun the battle on the Texas border against the mosquito and all other agencies of yellow fever. It is proposed, if possible, to prevent yellow fever from crossing the Mexican border this year, and the marine hospital authorities are receiving the co-operation of the Mexican health authorities. Yellow fever reached Laredo, Texas, late last year, but did not spread any further north than San Antonio, where it was soon checked by cool weather. It is feared that if the disease crosses the American border early this year there will be great danger of fearful spread of the yellow peril.

The chief fight is against the mosquito. The Mexican health authorities are working with the Mexican people to make them understand that the mosquito conveys the disease and that it must be exterminated. The marine hospital publishes in its weekly report a translation of the instructions issued by the Mayor of the Mexican city of Laredo for the destruction of mosquitoes. These instructions so thoroughly educate those who read them that the public health authorities of this country think they ought to be read carefully by every American. They are as follows:

1. Mosquitos breed only in deposits of clean water.
2. Mosquitos live in the vicinity where they breed. Invasions from a distance are rare.
3. The larve of the mosquito live in the water from seven to twelve days. Notwithstanding that they are natives of the water, the mosquito larve must rise to the surface to breathe the free air.
4. If the surface of the water is covered with petroleum the larve can not breathe and they die.
5. Destroy the water deposits where the mosquitoes breed and their breeding will be avoided.
6. Empty all tubs, buckets, flower pots, vases, &c., at least every two days.
7. All pools, ditches or wells should be filled or drained.
8. Water intended for beasts, chickens and all other animals should be renewed daily.
9. All water that cannot be drained should be covered with petroleum—30 grams to each square meter of surface. The oil does not injure the water intended for use if it is drawn from below by means of a pump or other medium.
10. All cisterns, wells or tanks of water in daily use should be covered with wire screens.

11. Deposits that do not admit of the use of petroleum, such as watering places for animals, will require the precaution of renewing the water daily and cleaning the deposits.
12. Vegetation around pools or wells of water should be destroyed, as it furnishes shelter for the adult mosquito.
13. Absolute cleanliness should be observed in vacant blocks and lots, and all trash should be burned.

WARNING TO BOYS.

Mouth of Limestone Creek a Dangerous Point For Swimming—Walter Coleman Drowned Sunday.

Walter Coleman, colored, was drowned shortly before noon Sunday while in swimming at the mouth of Limestone Creek. Coleman was seventeen years old, but was small for his age.

Saturday, he told some of his companions that the folks where he was employed would be away from home Sunday, and he was going to spend the day in the river. He had only recently learned to swim, and when he got into the deep hole at the mouth of the creek and was caught by the current, he became frightened, and sank to his death.

His companions when they saw he was drowning were too badly scared to render him any assistance.

Capt. Phister, Mr. John McMann and others hurried to the scene and with the aid of a spike pole recovered the body of the unfortunate boy in less than half an hour. Efforts were made to resuscitate him but without success. Coroner Wood was summoned and held an inquest after which the body was removed to Means' undertaking rooms. The funeral will be at 2:30 this afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. O. A. Nelson.

Below is the verdict of the Coroner's jury. It contains a warning for boys who resort to the mouth of the creek for swimming:

We the undersigned jury summoned by Coroner J. D. Wood to hold inquest on the dead body of Walter Coleman, do find, after due investigation, that said boy came to his death by drowning in mouth of Limestone, and further find that the drowning was clearly accidental and that his comrades did all in their power to save said Coleman. We further suggest that all boys should be warned against this point as a swimming pool on account of the depth of water occasioned by recent heavy rains.

BORN NEAR FERN LEAF.

Death of Amos Gordon, a Native of Mason, at His Home at Parkersburg, W. Va., Friday.

Mr. A. J. McDougle received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of Mr. Amos Gordon at Parkersburg, W. Va., on Friday evening.

Mr. Gordon was a son of the late Charles Gordon and was born and raised near Fern Leaf. He was about sixty-five years old, and leaves five children, one daughter and four sons. His wife, who was a Miss Neal of Parkersburg, also survives him. Mr. Gordon was a brother of Mrs. Samuel Proctor of this county, Mrs. D. Norris, formerly of Germantown but now living at Lexington, and of Mrs. Joseph Fraze, formerly of this city but now a resident of Flemingsburg.

Deceased was one of the pioneer oil men of West Virginia, and two of his sons are now engaged in the oil business in Texas. He was the owner of the famous Blennerhasset Island and leaves considerable property also in Parkersburg.

The interment was at Parkersburg.

The attorneys in the Louisville Bridge suit were awarded a fee of $50,000 Saturday by Judge Miller of that city. J. C. Dodd is one of those among whom this fee is to be divided.

The revival at Sharpsburg had resulted in forty-two additons to the Christian Church at last accounts.

RIVER NEWS.

Steamer Avalon to be Placed in the Charleston-Cincinnati Trade—Coal Shipments Coming.

The coal shipments from Pittsburg since Thursday have reached about 5,000,000 bushels.

The Tacoma and Ben Hur will pass up to-night. Virginia down this evening and Stanley to-night.

Huntington Advertiser: "Huntington is to have another steamer running in and out of this port in the near future. The independent company has decided that, after the middle of next month, they will take the Avalon, which is now running in the Coney Island excursion trade, and have the boat run between Cincinnati and Charleston. This boat is one of the fastest on the river. Business is already increasing with the independent company, and it is necessary that the company put on an additional boat to accommodate the large volume."

AN EVENING AT FAIRMOUNT.

Delightful Dinner Party Given By Miss Porter Perrie at Home of Her Father Near Dover.

[Dover Messenger.]

On Friday evening, July 1, 1904, Miss Porter Perrie of Maysville gave a delightful dinner party to a select coterie of Maysville friends at "Fairmount," the elegant home of her father, Mr. Frank Perrie, near Dover.

The repast was served in seven courses in the old-time Kentucky style and the festive board fairly groaned beneath the menu of delightful eatables and refreshments.

Miss Porter, always a charming hostess, was assisted in receiving her guests by her sisters, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Hickman and Miss Anna Perrie.

Besides the splendid dinner which was very much enjoyed, the evening's entertainment was heightened with vocal and instrumental music etc., and time flew away with hasty feet until the hour of midnight when the laughing crowd dispersed.

Among those present were Mr. W. L. Yelman and Miss Grace Anderson, Mr. L. T. Anderson and Miss Mary Alter Barbour, Mr. Robert L. Hoflich and Miss Ann Delia Power, Mr. W. W. McIlvain and Miss Porter Perrie, Mrs. George Taylor Barbour, Mrs. Edward McDowell, Mrs. Elizabeth Davidson and Mr. Harry C. Curran, all of Maysville.

Breakfast food and strawberries.—Cahoun's.

At Cincinnati Saturday, Philip Fitzsimmons filed suit against D. J. Hauss, formerly of this city, to enjoin him from disposing of certain stock in the Fitzsimmons Telephone Company. Mr. Fitzsimmons says Hauss proposed to promote the affairs of the company and get persons interested in furnishing capital to push its business and establish a telephone system. Mr. Fitzsimmons says he is an illiterate man, without knowledge of stocks and bonds and the handling of them, while Mr. Hauss is skilled in such matters. Hence it was that Hauss was allowed to become the agent of Fitzsimmons for the purpose of promoting its interests. He became the Secretary of the company, and it is charged that he induced Fitzsimmons to sign blank certificates of stock as the President of the corporation and then filled out some of them and claims to own them, whereas, in fact, he does not. It is alleged that this was done for the purpose of defrauding Fitzsimmons and appropriating the stock for the use of Hauss.

A New Style for Dudes.

[Georgetown News-Democrat.]

The attempt to put the Igorrotes at the World's Fair in pants has had many ludicrous and amusing features. The first man dressed in the habiliments of civilization was Chief Antonio. He was decked in a full suit of American hand-me-downs and capped with a plug hat. He stood around before his chattering cohorts until he was photographed for the War Department when he took a sneak for his nipa hut. Those who went to him afterward found him divested of his troussers but faithfully wearing his coat, shirt, shoes, and plug hat, the shirt coming below the tail of his coat, presenting a novel and pleasing effect. If you see any of our dudes thus dressed you will know where they got the idea.
